WELCOME • WORSHIP • GROW • SERVE

Moorhead, Minnesota

First Sunday in Lent March 5, 2017

For your reflection during Lent: Luther's Prayer before the Lord's Supper
Lord, let my heart be grasped by my need for you and for the gift of forgiveness you give to me in your body and blood. Keep me from deception by reminding me that you command me to take this gift. By this means you not only fill me with yourself but also call me to remember you as the one who is my life and my strength. I want to cherish this gift, Lord, and to receive you as often as I am able. Amen.

"Welcoming the community to worship and grow in serving God."

Prelude

Jean Hellner, Guest Organist

Welcome

Invocation

We gather as we live, in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Confession & Forgiveness

*Cantor sings refrain
Congregation sings refrain*

Turn, turn to the liv - ing God, the God of heal - ing and com - fort, and with de - light God will turn to you. With de - light God will turn to you.

In the presence of God and of one another, let us confess our sins.
We pause for reflection & self-examination.

Holy God, holy and mighty, holy and immortal,

Have mercy on us.

For self centered living, and for failing to walk with humility and gentleness:

Holy God, have mercy on us.

For longing to have what is not ours, and for hearts that are not at rest with ourselves:

Holy God, have mercy on us.

For misuse of human relationships, and for unwillingness to see the image of God in others:

Holy God, have mercy on us.

For jealousies that divide families and nations, and for rivalries that create strife and warfare:

Holy God, have mercy on us.

For reluctance in sharing the gifts of God, and for carelessness with the fruits of creation:

Holy God, have mercy on us.

For hurtful words that condemn, and for angry deeds that harm:

Holy God, have mercy on us.

For idleness in witnessing to Christ, and for squandering your gifts of love and grace:

Holy God, have mercy on us.

In the mercy of almighty God, Jesus Christ was given to die for us, and for his sake God forgives us all our sins. Through the Holy Spirit, we are made clean and given power to proclaim the mighty acts of God, who calls us out of darkness into his marvelous light. As a called and ordained minister of the church of Christ, and by his authority, I therefore declare to you the entire forgiveness of all your sins, in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Lamb of God, who blesses all life's journeys, travel with us through these 40 days. As you resisted temptation for earthly power in the wilderness, so may we seek to promote your word and proclaim your gospel. Praise to you for the work of faithful women who show your redeeming and reconciling work in the world, nurturing unity across the nations, in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ. Amen.

First Lesson Genesis 2:15-17; 3:1-7

(8:30) Sue Ellingson
(10:30) Stan Iverson

15 The Lord God took the man and put him in the garden of Eden to till it and keep it.
16 And the Lord God commanded the man, "You may freely eat of every tree of the garden;
17 but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall die." 3:1 Now the serpent was more crafty than any other wild animal that the Lord God had made. He said to the woman, "Did God say, 'You shall not eat from any tree in the garden?'" 2 The woman said to the serpent, "We may eat of the fruit of the trees in the garden;
3 but God said, 'You shall not eat of the fruit of the tree that is in the middle of the garden, nor shall you touch it, or you shall die.'" 4 But the serpent said to the woman, "You will not die;
5 for God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." 6 So when the woman saw that the tree was good for food, and that it was a delight to the eyes, and that the tree was to be desired to make one wise, she took of its fruit and ate; and she also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate. 7 Then the eyes of both were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made loincloths for themselves.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Second Lesson    Romans 5:12-19

12 Just as sin came into the world through one man, and death came through sin, and so death spread to all because all have sinned—13 sin was indeed in the world before the law, but sin is not reckoned when there is no law. 14 Yet death exercised dominion from Adam to Moses, even over those whose sins were not like the transgression of Adam, who is a type of the one who was to come. 15 But the free gift is not like the trespass. For if the many died through the one man's trespass, much more surely have the grace of God and the free gift in the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abounded for the many. 16 And the free gift is not like the effect of the one man's sin. For the judgment following one trespass brought condemnation, but the free gift following many trespasses brings justification. 17 If, because of the one man's trespass, death exercised dominion through that one, much more surely will those who receive the abundance of grace and the free gift of righteousness exercise dominion in life through the one man, Jesus Christ. 18 Therefore just as one man's trespass led to condemnation for all, so one man's act of righteousness leads to justification and life for all. 19 For just as by the one man's disobedience the many were made sinners, so by the one man's obedience the many will be made righteous.

Gospel Matthew 4:1-11

The Holy Gospel according to St. Matthew, the 4th Chapter.

Glory to You, O Lord.

1 Jesus was led up by the Spirit into the wilderness to be tempted by the devil. 2 He fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterwards he was famished. 3 The tempter came and said to him, “If you are the Son of God, command these stones to become loaves of bread.” 4 But he answered, “It is written, ‘One does not live by bread alone, but by every word that comes from the mouth of God.’” 5 Then the devil took him to the holy city and placed him on the pinnacle of the temple, 6 saying to him, “If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down; for it is written, ‘He will command his angels concerning you,’ and ‘On their hands they will bear you up, so that you will not dash your foot against a stone.’” 7 Jesus said to him, “Again it is written, ‘Do not put the Lord your God to the test.’” 8 Again, the devil took him to a very high mountain and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor; 9 and he said to him, “All these I will give you, if you will fall down and worship me.” 10 Jesus said to him, “Away with you, Satan! for it is written, ‘Worship the Lord your God, and serve only him.’” 11 Then the devil left him, and suddenly angels came and waited on him.

I believe that Jesus Christ true God, Son of the Father from eternity, and true man, born of the Virgin Mary is my Lord. At great cost he has saved and redeemed me, a lost and condemned person. He has freed me from sin, death, and the power of the devil, not with silver or gold, but with his holy and precious blood, and his innocent suffering and death. All this he has done that I may be his own, live under him in his kingdom, and serve him in everlasting righteousness, innocence, and blessedness, just as he is risen from the dead and lives and rules eternally. This is most certainly true.
